Case Number 16-11767-CMA
Northwest Territorial Mint LLC

Gentlemen:

I wrote you on June 2nd 2017 requesting information about the return of 60 ounces of rounds that I purchased and own but were never delivered because of the bankruptcy . I read a report that there was enough inventory and the owners would receive what they had purchased. I was in the business world for over 50 years and always felt that common courtesy called for a response to any written request. Apparently this is no longer the case in this new world of ours. I would appreciate some information about the status of my claim at some time in the future.
