Re: In re Northwest Territorial Mint, LLC, Case No. 16-11767

Dear Mr. Brian Mehlbrech:

The Court received your letter regarding the above referenced case filed on April 20, 2016, that was put on the Court's docket [Dkt. 83#]. The Court has set up a website to address the inquiries of consumers involved in this case at <http://www.wawb.uscourts.gov/news/nw-territorial-mint-llc-filed-chapter-11>. On this website, you will find information regarding how to file a proof of claim, how to access the Court's docket for this case, and general information about the bankruptcy process.

Bankruptcy Rule 9003 and the Code of Judicial Conduct prohibit the Court from having ex-parte contact with a party concerning matters that may come before it. The court staff is barred from giving you any legal advice in this matter. You may wish to contact an experienced bankruptcy attorney to assist you in this matter if you would like further information or advice.

Sincerely,

Christopher M. Alston
Bankruptcy Judge
