12 NORTHWEST TERRITORIAL MINT, LLC,
13 Debtor.

Case No. 16-11767-CMA

MOTION FOR ORDER APPROVING THE SALE OF THE DEBTOR'S TOMBALL,
TEXAS ASSETS FREE AND CLEAR OF ALL
LIENS, CLAIMS, INTERESTS, AND ENCUMBRANCES; APPROVING THE ASSUMPTION AND ASSIGNMENT OF CERTAIN OF THE DEBTOR'S EXECUTORY
CONTRACTS; AND GRANTING OTHER RELATED RELIEF

17 Mark Calvert (the "Trustee"), Chapter 11 Trustee for Northwest Territorial Mint, LLC
18 ("NWTM" or the "Debtor"), submits this Motion to the Court, which requests entry of an order 19 approving (i) the sale of certain assets related to the business enterprise owned by NWTM and 20 commonly referred to as Graco Awards Manufacturing ("Graco") which are located in Tomball, 21 Texas, free and clear of all liens, claims, and encumbrances to Tom Tucker and Larry Cook or an 22 entity formed by them ("Tucker/Cook" or "Buyer"); (ii) the assumption and assignment by the 23 Trustee to Buyer of certain of the Debtor's executory contracts and leases related to Graco; and (iv) 24 such other related relief identified herein. In support of the Motion, the Trustee respectfully states as

1 BACKGROUND

2 On April 1, 2016, the Debtor commenced this case by filing a voluntary petition under 3 chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code. On April 11, 2016, an order was entered 4 appointing Mark Calvert as chapter 11 Trustee. See Dkt. No. 51.

5 Upon his appointment, the Trustee took control over the business operations of the Debtor 6 and initiated his investigation of the financial affairs of the bankruptcy estate. The Trustee has 7 learned that many of the Debtor’s financial records are missing. The Trustee was immediately faced 8 with significant operational issues and forced to address employee layoffs, imminent plans to move 9 certain operations from Texas to Nevada, and an urgent need to manage cash resources in order to 10 stabilize the Debtor’s business operations. In addition, the Trustee has taken a detailed inventory of 11 precious metals, coins, gold, and silver bullion, and other inventory of the Debtor. One of the 12 Trustee’s principal concerns has been whether the business, or any aspects thereof, can be 13 reorganized or sold as a going concern.

14 One aspect of the Debtor’s business is the minting of coins, awards, and medallions for third 15 parties. In furtherance thereof, the Debtor owns a business enterprise commonly referred to as Graco 16 Awards Manufacturing (“Graco”). Graco’s primary facilities are located at 723 South Cherry Street, 17 Tomball, Texas 77375. The Trustee has investigated the Graco business, and evaluated whether it is 18 in the best interests of the estate to liquidate the business or operate it as a going concern. As set 19 forth in the Trustee’s declaration submitted herewith, the Trustee has determined that the business as 20 a whole is suffering from a cash shortfall. Because the Trustee needs to generate cash to preserve other 21 aspects of the Debtor’s business, the Graco assets must be sold as quickly as possible.

22 Since his appointment, the Trustee has communicated with multiple interested purchasers 23 regarding the sale of the Graco business and obtained multiple offers to purchase the Graco assets.
24 Tucker/Cook have emerged with the highest and best offer for the assets related to the Graco 25 business. The Trustee and Buyer have negotiated the terms of a purchase and sale agreement (the 1 “Purchase Agreement”), which is attached to the Declaration of Mark Calvert filed in support of this 2 Motion (the “Calvert Decl.”) as Exhibit A. The negotiations between the Buyer and the Trustee were 3 at arms-length and were free from any fraud, collusion or bad faith.

4 The terms of the Purchase Agreement provide that the Buyer will pay the Trustee $600,000 5 for the assets related to the Graco business (the “Purchased Assets”). In addition, the Buyer has 6 agreed to assume certain liabilities of the Debtor in the approximate amount of $150,000. The 7 Purchased Assets include certain executory contracts to be selected by the Buyer (the “Assumed 8 Contracts”). The additional terms of the proposed sale are set forth in the Purchase Agreement. In 9 the event that another bidder comes forward seeking to acquire the Graco assets and the Trustee 10 determines that an auction should be held, the Trustee has agreed to seek approval of bids 11 increments of $25,000. In addition, in the event that a bidder other than Buyer prevails at auction, 12 and the sale to that prevailing bidder is approved by this Court, the Trustee has agreed to request that 13 the Court award Tucker/Cook a break-up fee in the amount of $25,000 (the “Break-Up Fee”).

14 According to the terms of the Purchase Agreement, the Buyer will have until May 10, 2015 15 at 5:00 p.m. (the “Assumed Contracts Deadline”), to select the executory contracts it wishes to 16 assume under the Purchase Agreement. The Buyer will responsible for curing any defaults under the 17 Assumed Contracts. The Trustee will promptly provide notice to the counterparties of such Assumed 18 Contracts, so that they may have an opportunity to respond to the proposed assumption and 19 assignment or proposed cure amounts related thereto. The Trustee requests that the deadline for 20 submitting such objections shall be May 24, 2016 at 5:00 p.m. (the “Cure Cost/Assignment 21 Objection Deadline”). In the event that objections to cure cost amounts or assignment of executory 22 contracts is received by the Cure Cost/Assignment Objection Deadline, the Trustee will schedule an 23 additional hearing following the hearing on the Sale Motion to resolve outstanding disputes with 24 respect to cure costs. Disputes as to the assignability of the executory contracts or leases will be 25 resolved at the sale hearing.

EVIDENCE RELIED UPON

This Motion relies on the arguments set forth herein, the Declaration of Trustee Mark Calvert filed in support of the Motion, the Declaration of Tom Tucker submitted on behalf of the proposed Buyer, the pleadings and records on file in this case, and the arguments of counsel, if any.

ARGUMENT

The Court should approve the Trustee’s proposed sale of the Debtor’s assets related to its Graco business, free and clear of liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances, pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement. Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that the Trustee is authorized to sell assets outside the ordinary course of its business. While the text of the Bankruptcy Code does not provide the standard for determining when it is appropriate for a court to authorize the sale of property of the estate, courts often approve a proposed sale if such sale is based upon the sound business judgment of the debtor. See, e.g., Meyers v. Martin (In re Martin), 9 F.3d 389, 395 (3d Cir. 1996); In re Lionel Corp., 722 F.2d 1063 (2d Cir. 1983).

A. The Proposed Sale Meets the Requirements for a Sale Under 363(b).

Here, a sound business reason exists for the proposed sale to Buyer. Namely, the objective of the Trustee’s proposed sale is to maximize the proceeds of such sale for the benefit of the bankruptcy estate and to preserve value of the remainder of the assets of the bankruptcy estate. See, e.g., Four B. Corp. v. Food Barn Stores, Inc.(In re Food Barn Stores, Inc.), 107 F.3d 558, 564-65 (8th Cir. 1997) (stating that in bankruptcy sales, “a primary objective of the Code [is] to enhance the value of the estate at hand”); In re Integrated Res, Inc., 147 B.R. 650, 659 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (“It is a well-established principle of bankruptcy law that the objective of bankruptcy rules and the [Debtor’s] duty with respect to such sales is to obtain the highest price or greatest overall benefit possible for the estate.”) (alteration in original) (quoting In re Atlanta Packaging Products, Inc., 99 B.R. 124, 130 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. 1988)).

1 The sale of assets outside of the ordinary course of business may be conducted by a private 2 sale as opposed to an auction under appropriate circumstances. See In re Bakalis, 220 B.R. 525, 531
3 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1998) (“Unlike judicial sales under the former Bankruptcy Act, the sale of estate 4 property under the Bankruptcy Code is conducted by a trustee, who has ample discretion . . . to 5 conduct public or private sales of estate property.”) (internal quotations and citation omitted). Here, 6 the Trustee has determined that there is insufficient interest in the Graco business to hold a public 7 auction. Additionally, the estate’s business as a whole is suffering from a cash shortfall and it is 8 imperative that the assets be sold as quickly as possible. Thus, the Trustee believes that a private sale 9 to Buyer is in the best interests of the estate. The proposed sale is the highest and best offer received 10 for the assets, and the Trustee does not believe he could obtain a higher and better offer within a 11 reasonable period of time. Should an interested purchaser come forward, before this sale is 12 approved, with a materially higher offer than the offer of Tucker/Cook, the Trustee will conduct an 13 auction for the assets.

14 For purposes of 11 U.S.C. § 363(m), a “good faith purchaser” is one who buys “in good 15 faith” and “for value.” Ewell v. Diebert (In re Ewell), 958 F.2d 276, 281 (9th Cir. 1992). “The 16 requirement that a purchaser act in good faith . . . speaks to the integrity of his conduct in the course 17 of the sale proceedings.” In re Abbotts Dairies of Pennsylvania, Inc., 788 F.2d 143, 147 (3d Cir.
18 1992) (quotations omitted). The “lack of good faith is shown by ‘fraud, collusion between the 19 purchaser and other bidders or the trustee, or an attempt to take grossly unfair advantage of other 20 bidders.’” In re Ewell, 958 F.2d at 281 (quoting Community Thrift & Loan v. Suchy (In re Suchy), 21 786 F.2d 900, 902 (9th Cir. 1985)); see also In re Abbotts Dairies, 788 F.2d at 147. Here, the 22 Purchase Agreement is the result of arm’s length negotiations between the Trustee and the Buyer. It 23 is not the result of any fraud or collusion between the Trustee and the Buyer or between the Debtor 24 and the Buyer. The Buyer is therefore a good-faith buyer within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 363(m).

1 The proposed purchase price of $600,000, plus assumption of approximately $150,000 in 2 liabilities, is fair and reasonable, and represents the highest and best offer that the Trustee has 3 received for the Graco business' assets to date. The Trustee believes that the purchase price 4 represents the highest and best return for the estate given the nature of the assets and the liquidity 5 crisis facing the Debtor's business. The Trustee, in addition to establishing that the Buyer has acted 6 in good faith and that there is a sound business justification for the sale, has also provided adequate 7 and sufficient notice of the proposed sale to Buyer. The Court should therefore grant the Motion and 8 approve the proposed sale to Buyer.

9 B. Good Cause Exists to Waive the Stay Under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6004(h).

10 Pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6004(h), any order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of 11 property other than cash collateral is stayed for 14 days, unless the court orders otherwise. As noted 12 herein, given the liquidity concerns facing the Debtor's business, and the necessity that this sale 13 close quickly, causes exists to waive the stay and permit the Trustee to quickly consummate the 14 proposed sale to Buyer under the terms of the Purchase Agreement.

15 C. The Proposed Sale of the Graco Business Assets Satisfies the Requirement of 11
16 U.S.C. § 363(f).

17 Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §363(f), a Trustee may sell property of the estate under 11 U.S.C. § 18 363(b) free and clear of any interest in such property of any entity other than the estate only if (1) 19 applicable non-bankruptcy law permits sale of such property free and clear of such interest; (2) such 20 entity consents; (3) such interest is a lien and the price at which the property is to be sold is greater 21 than the aggregate value of all liens on such property; (4) such interest is in bona fide dispute; or (5) 22 such entity could be compelled, in a legal or equitable proceeding, to accept a money satisfaction of 23 such interest. 11 U.S.C. § 363(f).

24 Here, the Trustee is unaware of whether there are any entities that claim a lien on any of the 25 Purchased Assets other than the claims of Texas taxing authorities. The Trustee has provided notice 26 of the sale to the Texas taxing authorities and will provide notice of this motion to the entire mailing

1 matrix, so that if any entity claims a lien on the assets being sold, they will have an opportunity to 2 object. If no such creditor objects, the sale free and clear will be permitted under 11 U.S.C. § 3 363(f)(2). Moreover, even if secured creditors object to the sale, the sale free and clear is permissible
4 under 11 U.S.C. § 363(f)(5) because there are legal and equitable proceedings in which a lienholder 5 could be compelled to accept a money satisfaction of such lien, including the disposition of collateral 6 under the default remedies provided in Washington's Uniform Commercial Code (Chater 62A.9A 7 RCW) or in a receivership proceeding pursuant to RCW 7.60.260. Furthermore, any lienholder also 8 will be adequately protected by having its liens, if any, attach to the proceeds of the sale in the same 9 order of priority, with the same validity, force, and effect that such creditor had prior to such sale, 10 subject to any claims and defenses that the Trustee and the Debtor's bankruptcy estate may possess 11 with respect thereto. For these reasons, the proposed sale free and clear of liens should be approved.

12 D. Approval of the Assumption and Assignment of Executory Contracts Under 11 13 U.S.C. § 365 is Appropriate.

14 The Trustee also requests that the Court approve the assumption and assignment of the 15 Assumed Contracts under the Purchase Agreement. The Trustee may assign executory contracts or 16 unexpired leases only if the Trustee (a) first assumes the contract or lease in accordance with the 17 Bankruptcy Code; and (b) the assignee provides adequate assurance of future performance of such 18 contract or lease. 11 U.S.C. § 365(f). Additionally, the Trustee must cure all defaults existing under 19 such executory contract or lease prior to assumption.

20 Presently, the Trustee is unaware of which contracts the Buyer will elect to assume. Under 21 the Purchase Agreement, the Buyer will have until the Assumed Contracts Deadline to provide the 22 Trustee with notice of any Assumed Contracts. The Trustee will thereafter notify the counterparties 23 of such contracts and provide them with the opportunity to object to the assumption and assignment 24 of their contract or lease by the Cure Cost/Assignment Objection Deadline. If there are any 25 unresolved objections to the assumption and assignment of such contracts, the Court will address 26 such objections at the sale hearing, provided that hearings with respect to resolution of the amounts

1 of cure may be scheduled at a date after closing of the sale. Additionally, if requested by any 2 counterparty to one of the Assumed Contracts, the Trustee believes that the Buyer could provide 3 adequate assurance of future performance under such contract or lease. For these reasons, the 4 Trustee requests that the Court approve the proposed assumption and assignment of the Assumed 5 Contracts to the Buyer at closing.

6 E. The Proposed Bid Increments and Break-Up Fee is Reasonable Under the 7 Circumstances.

8 Presently, the Trustee does not anticipate overbids for the Tomball, Texas assets. However, 9 in the event that the Trustee receives a materially higher and better offer from a party other than the 10 Buyer the Trustee reserves the right to conduct an auction for the assets. In the event of such an 11 auction, the Trustee requests authority to establish bid increments of $25,000. In the event that a 12 party other than the Buyer becomes the successful bidder, and such other parties offer is approved by 13 this Court, the Trustee requests that Tucker/Cook be awarded a break-up fee in the amount of 14 $25,000 (the "Break-Up Fee").

15 The amount of the proposed Break-Up Fee is fair and reasonable in relation to the purchase 16 price and the amount of expenses incurred by Buyer. The Buyer has incurred out-of-pocket legal 17 fees in conducting due diligence, and negotiating the Purchase Agreement and related sale pleadings.
18 See In re Integrated Res., Inc., 147 B.R. 650, 659-60 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (stating that break-up fees 19 "are important tools to encourage bidding and to maximize the value of the debtor's assets" and are 20 enforceable if they encourage, as oppose to stifle, bidding). For these reasons, the proposed Break-21 Up Fee should be approved.

22 CONCLUSION

23 For the foregoing reasons, the Trustee respectfully request that the Court enter an order in the 24 formed proposed by the Trustee authorizing its proposed sale to the Buyer free and clear of liens, 25 claims, interests, and encumbrances, approving the assumption and assignment of the Assumed 26 Contracts, and for such other relief as the Court deems appropriate under the circumstances.
