MARK L. HATCHER, CLERK
OF THE BANKRUPTCY COURT

Notice of continued hearing on applications for Compensation

Dear Sir, while in these applications a battery of attorneys and accountants expenses and wages may be justified, I VEHEMENTLY OBJECT to the Mark Calvert (Trustee) request for $906,310 in compensation for Two years work, that ended in nothing.

Was this business Re-named and heavily advertised, to promote a viable business? Was a strenuous effort made to build a new business model, based on honest operations and to acquire customer trust, contrary to the former owner's outright Fraud and Theft?

I see little that was done to promote a viable business, that might operate profitably and over time repay the creditors of Northwest Territorial Mint. Instead, what I see is a floundering effort to revitalize a company with a well-known history of larceny and deceit.

What I gather is to happen now, will be the auction of company assets, proceeds going to the largest creditors and the bulk of those defrauded of their hard earned money, will get Nothing.

So...I would NOT agree that Mark Calvert should walk away nearly a Million dollars richer, for accomplishing Nothing.

Respectfully,

Robert L. Reid
