Re: Proper Notice and other obligations of trustee Please forward to me via United States Postal Service all future notices regarding the above referenced proceedings. Also include in the above all written documents I have sent to Judge Alston as part of the record.

It is clear that Mr. Calvert has not fulfilled his obligations in numerous ways as trustee in the bankruptcy of N.W.T.M., (16-11767). Specifically he has been in breach of contract regarding my Bullion Storage Contract for 657 oz Troy .999 Ag. ever since April, 24, 2016 when I directed said trustee to deliver to me my property, or, in the alternative refund my monies at the then full market value.

My property is not now, was not then, and never will be property of the debtor's estate. Please consider this as an Invoice and remit at once at the full market value in United States dollars, or, in the alternative return to me my property, (657 oz. Tray .999 Ag) As late as 11-2019 Mr. Calvert has been selling various metals termed "Junk-Inventory" and to the tune of 70,000 dollars. (seventy^{nine} thousand). see dkt. # 2201.

The record speaks for itself, please remit, with all due respect,
Jodie Hirtler
