MARK L. HATCHER, CLERK
OF THE BANKRUPTCY COURT

US Bankruptcy Court Western District of Washington at Seattle.
Case No. 16-11767-CMA

Michael J. Gearin; K&L Gates LLP.

I am writing to inform you that I am opposed to selling the assets of Graco Awards Manufacturing "Graco".

I do not see any protection for my assets in allowing Graco asset liquidation.

I do not know how much of the money I paid to Northwest Territorial Mint (NWTM) went to benefit Graco in terms of silver procurement, bullion on hand, or equipment to mint the medallions I attempted to purchase. I feel that as a debtor of NWTM, I am also a debtor of Graco and should be guaranteed a portion of gains from the sale of Graco. Someone is gaining from the sale but it is not me.

I feel that I should be included in any benefits gained through the sale of Graco assets, and see no evidence in the presentation mailed to me that my investments or interests are receiving any such protection.

Below is a brief copy of email correspondence with Northwest Territorial Mint demonstrating my good faith investment in the procurement of silver from NWTM.

It has been 2 weeks since I requested a refund of monies paid, and still no check. Is it that you cannot deliver silver or a check? Does your company have the ability to deliver anything?

Good evening, The owner of our company was unexpectedly hit with very large judgment. At this point we are uncertain if or how this judgment will affect our company. We are working on a plan moving forward...
