Re: In re Northwest Territorial Mint LLC, 16-11767

Dear Jeffrey and Martha McMeel:

The Court received your letter requesting an emergency evidentiary hearing to be set in the above-referenced case [DKT #66]. Your letter does not state sufficient cause for setting an emergency evidentiary hearing and is not a proper motion. Pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9013-1, before the Judge may take any further action in this case, a motion must be noted for hearing on the Judge's hearing calendar and served on all parties in interest, including the case trustee, as required by the federal and local rules of bankruptcy procedure. You can view the federal and local rules and determine available calendar dates on the Court's web site at <http://www.wawb.uscourts.gov>.

Bankruptcy Rule 9003 and the Code of Judicial Conduct prohibit the Court from having ex-parte contact with a party concerning matters that may come before it. The court staff is barred from giving you any legal advice in this matter.

Sincerely,

Morgan Brannon
