MARK L. HATCHER, CLERK OF THE BANKRUPTCY COURT

Re: Chapter 11 Northwest Territorial Mint LLC, 16-11767

Request for Internal Revenue Forms 1099-A and C for Judge Alston's Order and THE MCMEEL.

Your Honor Judge Alston,

One day while in court you sanctioned The MCMEEL and ordered a fine of $5,000.00.

I have a need to know where did you get the Order from and who exercised the privilege to issue the Order?

Who (not a title) is responsible for issuing the Order that day in court?

Where is the public Policy to cover the five thousand dollar fine in particular? I need from you the bill of particular covering this $5,000 to match the Order.

You are the finder of fact in the bankruptcy court, so please give me the facts I request with this letter. If you can't find the facts regarding these questions, then where is the customer satisfaction Policy to cover this matter?

The satisfaction could include the Internal Revenue Forms 1099-A and C which cover the public Policy guarantee for the ordered fine. This request from me requires immediate action on your part.

If you prefer you can send me payment that I can take down to the bank and cash.
Cancel the order and the debt and then I would not need any 1099 forms.

I would accept the surety Bond in this case to pay the fine and make a nice down payment towards my missing inventory Claim. Thank you for your personal attention to these important details.

yours Truly,

The McMeel
