5 INTRODUCTION

6 On September 18, 2003, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission
7 (“Commission”) filed a Complaint in this civil action against Ronald Steven Holt 8 (“Holt”), International Funding Association (“IFA”), Cambridge Global Group 9 (“Cambridge”), and Global Management Group (“Global”). The Complaint seeks 10 injunctive and other equitable relief for violations of the antifraud provisions of the 11 Commodity Exchange Act (the “Act”), 7 U.S.C. § 1 et seq. (2002), and the 12 Regulations promulgated thereunder, 17 C.F.R. § 1.1 et seq. (2004). In a related 13 action, the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) filed Securities and 14 Exchange Commission v. Ronald Stephen Holt, et al., Case No.: 03 CV 1825, 15 alleging violations of the federal securities laws by Defendant Holt and others. On 16 October 1, 2003, the Court entered Statutory Restraining Orders as to Defendants 17 Holt, Cambridge, Global and IFA.

19 II.

20 CONSENTS AND AGREEMENTS

21 To effect settlement of the matters alleged in the Complaint without a trial 22 on the merits, Holt individually, and Cambridge, Global and IFA (collectively

1 referred to herein as the “Defendants”) hereby:

2 1. Consent to the entry of this Consent Order of Permanent Injunction
3 and Other Relief Against Defendants Ronald Stephen Holt, et al. (“Order”);

4 2. Affirm that the Defendants have agreed to this Order voluntarily, and 5 that no promise or threat has been made by the Commission or any member, 6 officer, agent or representative thereof, or by any person, to induce consent to this 7 Order, other than as set forth specifically herein;

8 3. Admit that this Court has jurisdiction over them and the subject matter 9 of this action pursuant to Section 6c of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1 (2002);

10 4. Admit that venue properly lies with this Court pursuant to Section 6c 11 of the Act, 7 U.S.C. §13a-1 (2002);

12 5. Waive:

13 (a) all claims that they may possess under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 5 14 U.S.C. § 504 (2000) and 28 U.S.C. § 2412 (2000);

15 (b) any claim of Double Jeopardy based upon the institution of this 16 proceeding or the entry in this proceeding of any order imposing a civil monetary 17 penalty or any other relief; and 18 (c) all rights of appeal from this Order;

1           6.     Consent to the continued jurisdiction of this Court for the purpose of 2 enforcing the terms and conditions of this Order and for any other purposes 3 relevant to this case;

4           7.     Agree that neither the Defendants nor their agents, employees or 5 representatives acting under their control shall take any action or make any public 6 statement denying, directly or indirectly, any allegations in the Complaint or 7 creating or tending to create the impression that the Complaint is without factual 8 basis; provided, however, that nothing in this provision shall affect the 9 Defendants': i) testimonial obligations, or ii) right to take legal positions in other 10 proceedings to which the Commission is not a party. The Defendants will 11 undertake all steps to assure that all of their agents, employees and representatives 12 understand and comply with this agreement.

13           8.     By consenting to the entry of this Order, the Defendants neither admit 14 nor deny the allegations of the Complaint or the Findings of Fact contained in this 15 Order, except as to jurisdiction and venue. However, the Defendants agree and 16 intend that the allegations of the Complaint and all of the Findings of Fact made by 17 this Court and contained in Part III of this Order shall be taken as true and correct 18 and be given preclusive effect, without further proof, in the course of any 19 subsequent bankruptcy proceeding filed by, on behalf of, or against any Defendant, 20 or any proceeding to enforce this Order, or any other proceeding relating to the

1           12.    Venue properly lies with this Court pursuant to Section 6c of the Act, 2 7 U.S.C. § 13a-1(e) (2002), because Defendants resided in and transacted business 3 in the District of Arizona.

4           13.    The Commodity Futures Trading Commission is an independent 5 federal regulatory agency that is charged with responsibility for administering and 6 enforcing the provisions of the Act, as amended, 7 U.S.C. §§ 1 et seq. (2002), and 7 the Regulations promulgated thereunder.

8           14.    International Funding Association, Inc. (“IFA”) is an Arizona 9 corporation which designates its principal place of business as 9201 N. 29th 10 Avenue, Suite 63-336, Phoenix, AZ. IFA has never been registered with the 11 Commission in any capacity.

12           15.    Cambridge Global Group, Inc. (“Cambridge”) is held out by the 13 defendants as a common law trust formed under the laws of the Commonwealth of 14 the Bahamas. Cambridge has never been registered with the Commission in any 15 capacity.

16           16.    Global Management Group (“Global”) is held out by the defendants 17 to be an Arizona corporation. Global designates its principal place of business as 18 4212 W. Cactus Road, Suite 1110, Phoenix, AZ. Global has never been registered 19 with the Commission in any capacity
20
21
22

1           17.   Ronald Stephen Holt (“Holt”), of Mesa, Arizona, has held himself 2 out as the manager of IFA, Global and Cambridge since at least 1997. He is also 3 associated with the various trusts as either their beneficiary, trustee or control 4 person. Holt is not registered with the Commission in any capacity.

5           18.   Defendant Holt founded defendants IFA, Cambridge and Global to 6 solicit investments in futures contracts on commodities, precious metals and other 7 instruments.

8           19.   Since at least 1997, Defendant Holt acted as an officer, director, 9 manager and/or principal broker of IFA, Cambridge, and Global, and had personal 10 knowledge of all of the business activities of IFA, Cambridge and Global.
11

12           20.   At all relevant times, Defendant Holt was a controlling person of IFA, 13 Cambridge, and Global.

14           21.   Between 1997 and 2004, Defendants fraudulently solicited 15 approximately 2,500 persons to send funds totaling approximately $25 million to 16 bank accounts controlled by Defendants for the purpose of engaging in investments 17 in futures contracts on commodities, precious metals and other instruments.
18 Defendants made misrepresentations to customers about earning tremendous 19 profits, with little to no risk with guaranteed profits, knowing said 20 misrepresentations were false or made with reckless disregard for the truth of the 21 matter. Defendants intended that each of the 2,500 persons rely on these 22

1 fraudulent solicitations regarding misrepresentations of profit and risk of loss as 2 detailed below. Most, if not all, of these 2,500 persons relied on Defendants 3 fraudulent misrepresentations to send funds to bank accounts controlled by Holt 4 and the other Defendants for the purpose of engaging in investments in futures 5 contract on commodities, precious metals and other instruments.

6         22. In addition, Defendants made misrepresentations to customers about 7 past investment performance and issued false account statements to customers.

8         23. Defendants knew that these misrepresentations were false and that 9 customers relied upon these misrepresentations when investing.

10         24. None of the participating customers had any expectation of actually 11 taking delivery of any commodity.

12         25. None of the participating customers had any commercial need for the 13 subject commodities, nor did they have the ability to handle or store any of the 14 subject commodities.

15         26. Defendants intended that customers rely upon the false and fraudulent 16 representations Defendants made to customers.

17         27. Defendants diverted customer funds to a series of trusts, then either 18 transferred those funds to various domestic and offshore accounts controlled by 19 Defendant Holt, or the funds were converted to cash and misappropriated by 20 Defendant Holt, or the funds were converted to cash and misappropriated by 21 Defendant Holt for his personal expenses.

1           28. Defendants did not forward funds to any clearing firm and/or 2 investment firm for trading on behalf of customers and have failed to provide any 3 evidence that any foreign currency futures contracts were purchased on behalf of 4 customers.

5           29. Defendants knew that the contracts they purported to offer were 6 illegal futures contracts.

7           30. Funds solicited by Defendants were used to fund the purchase of 8 residential real estate, vehicles and trailers, art works, gold coins and various other 9 personal items, for the personal use and enjoyment of Defendant Holt, his family 10 and friends.

11           31. Defendants also used funds solicited from customers to purchase 12 foreign currency futures contracts solely for the benefit of Defendant Holt, his 13 family and friends.

14           32. Defendants solicited at least $25 million from customers, between 15 1997 and 2003.

16           33. At least $3 million in customer funds were personally transferred to 17 offshore bank accounts by Defendant Holt, and the remaining $22 million was 18 solicited at the direction of Defendant Holt, as the controlling person of IFA, 19 Cambridge and Global. Of the $25 million solicited by the Defendants from 20
22

1 customers, at least $14,406,252.00 has not been returned to customers by the 2 defendants, and remains in the possession and/or control of the Defendants.

3 B. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

4 34. Since at least 1997, Defendant Holt made material misrepresentations, 5 and failed to disclose material facts, while soliciting and accepting funds from 6 retail investors to engage in speculative trading of foreign currency futures 7 contracts. By virtue of this fraudulent conduct, Defendant Holt has violated 8 Section 4b(a)(2)(i) and (iii) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. §6b(a)(2)(i) and (iii) (2002).

9 35. Because Holt directly controlled all the significant business, 10 marketing and financial aspects of IFA, Global and Cambridge and knowingly 11 induced the acts constituting these violations of Section 4(b)(a)(2)(i) and (iii) of the 12 Act, 7 U.S.C. §6b(a)(2)(i) and (iii) (2002), Defendant Holt is the controlling person 13 of IFA, Global and Cambridge for purposes of Section 13(b) of the Act, 7 U.S.C.
14 § 13c(b) (2002).

15 36. Defendant Holt, as the controlling person of IFA, Global and 16 Cambridge, is liable for IFA, Global and Cambridge's violations of Section 17 4b(a)(2)(i) and (iii) of the Act, pursuant to Section 13(b) of the Act, 7 U.S.C.
18 § 13c(b) (2002).

19 37. Since at least 1997, Defendants IFA, Global and Cambridge, through 20 Defendant Holt, have offered to enter into, executed, confirmed the execution of,

1 or conducted an office or business in the United States for the purpose of soliciting, 2 accepting any order for, or otherwise dealing in transactions in, or in connection 3 with, a contract for the purchase or sale of a commodity for future delivery when: 4 (a) such transactions have not been conducted on or subject to the rules of a board 5 of trade which has been designated or registered by the Commission as a contract 6 market or derivatives transaction execution facility for such commodity; and (b) 7 such contracts have not been executed or consummated by or through such 8 contract market, in violation of Section 4(a) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6(a) (2002).

10 38. Because Holt directly controlled all the significant business, 11 marketing and financial aspects of IFA, Global and Cambridge and knowingly 12 induced the acts constituting these violations of Section 4(a) of the Act, 7 U.S.C.
13 § 6(a) (2002), Defendant Holt is the controlling person of IFA, Global and 14 Cambridge for purposes of Section 13(b) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 13c(b) (2002).

15 39. Defendant Holt, as the controlling person of IFA, Global and 16 Cambridge, is liable for IFA's, Global's and Cambridge's violations of Section 17 4(a) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. § 6(a) (2002), pursuant to Section 13(b) of the Act, 7 18 U.S.C. § 13c(b) (2002).

20 IV.

3 defrauding or attempting to cheat or defraud other persons and willfully deceiving 4 or attempting to deceive other persons by making false, deceptive or misleading 5 representations or material facts, by failing to disclose material facts, and by 6 misappropriating customer funds in or in connection with orders to make, or the 7 making of, contracts of sale of commodities for future delivery, made or to be 8 made for or on behalf of any other person in violation of Sections 4b(a)(2)(i) and 9 (iii) and 4(a) of the Act, 7 U.S.C. §§ 6b(a)(2)(i) and (iii) and 6(c) (2002).

14 the United States for the purpose of soliciting, accepting any order for, or 15 otherwise dealing in transactions in, or in connection with, a contract for the 16 purchase or sale of a commodity for future delivery when: (a) such transactions 17 have not been conducted on or subject to the rules of a board of trade which has 18 been designated or registered by the Commission as a contract market or 19 derivatives transaction execution facility for such commodity; and (b) such 20 contracts have not been executed or consummated by or through such contract

21 with the Commission in any capacity, and engaging in any activity 22 requiring such registration or exemption from registration with the Commission, except as provided for in Regulation 4.14(a)(9), 17 C.F.R. § 4.14(a)(9), or acting as a principal, agent, officer or employee of any person registered, required to be registered, or exempted from registration, except as provided for in Regulation 4.14(a)(9), 17 C.F.R. § 4.14(a)(9).

1 43. The injunctive provisions of this Order shall be binding upon 2 Defendants Holt, IFA, Global and Cambridge, and any person insofar as he or she 3 is acting in the capacity of officer, agent, servant, or attorney of Defendants Holt, 4 IFA, Global and Cambridge, and any person who receives actual notice of this
