24 "Opt-Out Motion") filed by creditor Igor Pavlovsky, and respectfully represents as follows:

DISCUSSION

3 The Trustee’s professionals are in the process of distributing Error Coins to 4 Victim/Creditors as requested by the Trustee and as authorized by the Court.¹ Victim/Creditors
5 who did not wish to receive Error Coins were required to fill out an “opt-out” form and return it to 6 the Trustee. Victim/Creditors who did not expressly and timely opt-out of receiving their allocated
7 Error Coins are deemed, by default, to have opted-in.²

8 As noted in the Opt-Out Motion, in February 2016, Mr. Pavlovsky notified the Trustee’s
9 professionals of his wish to “opt-out” of receiving Error Coins in connection with an asset 10 distribution plan which had been approved by the prior trustee and the Government. However, that 11 distribution plan was found to be untenable as it was premised on a valuation later determined to be 12 incomplete and faulty.³ Therefore, in October 2016, the Trustee requested and obtained a Court 13 order authorizing her to modify the prior distribution plan, retain coin valuation experts, and set a 14 new opt-out deadline for the receipt of Error Coins.⁴ Following the completion of the new coin
15 valuation by Professional Coin Grading Service, the Trustee filed and served the Distribution 16 Motion which explained in detail the new distribution schedule, notified Victim/Creditors of their 17 allocated Error Coins and provided an opportunity to opt-out of receiving Error Coins by July 3, 18 2017. Mr. Pavlovsky did not do so.

19 There are 376 Victim/Creditors in this case. Thirty (30) of those Victim/Creditors 20 determined to opt-out of receiving Error Coins in 2016 under the prior asset distribution plan (the 21 “Initial Opt-Out Parties”). In response to the Distribution Motion and Distribution Order, only

22
23 ¹ See Motion for Order (I) Approving Coin Valuations and Distribution Schedule of Error Coins to Victim/Creditors,
24 and (II) Granting Related Relief Pursuant to Sections 105 and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code filed June 1, 2017 [Dkt. No.
25 667] (the “Distribution Motion”) and the Order thereon entered July 25, 2017 [Dkt. No. 689] (the “Distribution Order”).

26 ² Distribution Order at paragraph 4.

27 ³ Debtor respectfully requests that the Court take judicial notice of the pleadings in this Case pursuant to Federal Rule of 28 Evidence 201.

29 ⁴ See Application to Employ GreatCollections.com as Auctioneer Notice Of Motion And Motion For Order Authorizing 30 The Trustee To (I) Retain GreatCollections.Com D/B/A Great Collections As Auctioneer, (Ii) Modify, In Part, Asset
31 Distribution Plan, And (Iii) Set New Opt-Out Deadline For Creditors To Determine Whether To Receive Error Coins In 32 Partial Payment Of Their Claims And Sell Coins Not Distributed To Creditors Free And Clear Of Liens, Claims And 33 Interests dated September 1, 2016 [Dkt. No. 623] and Order thereon dated October 12, 2016 [Dkt. No. 634].

1 eleven (11) of the Initial Opt-Out Parties failed to notify the Trustee’s professionals of their opt-in / 2 opt-out determination (the “Subject Victim/Creditors”). Mr. Pavlovsky is one of those eleven 3 Subject Victim/Creditors.

4 While the Trustee believes that full and adequate notice (and a detailed explanation) of the 5 revised distribution plan and opt-out deadline were provided to all Victim/Creditors, the Trustee 6 appreciates that there may have been some confusion among the Subject Victim/Creditors that their 7 prior opt-out determination was not applicable to the new opt-out deadline set under the 8 Distribution Order. Therefore, only with respect to the Subject Victim/Creditors, and subject to 9 approval by the Court, the Trustee will agree to enter into a stipulation to allow the Subject
10 Victim/Creditors to opt-out of receiving Error Coin under the following terms:

11 The Subject Victim/Creditor must provide written notice to the Trustee’s professionals that 12 (i) they do not wish to receive their allocated Error Coins, and (ii) acknowledge that it is possible
13 that such Subject Victim/Creditor might not receive any other form of distribution out of this 14 bankruptcy estate. Such notice may be in the form of Exhibit B to the Distribution Motion sent to 15 each Subject Victim Creditor.⁵ Notice of a Subject Victim/Creditor’s opt-out determination must 16 be given to the Trustee’s professional either (a) prior to the delivery of their Error Coins, or (b) no 17 later than five (5) days after receiving their Error Coins. Finally, if the Subject Victim/Creditor has 18 already received their Error Coins and wishes to return them, they must certify that they are 19 returning the same Error Coins that were shipped to them. The foregoing terms will be 20 incorporated into a stipulation which will be presented to the Court for approval.

21 By the Opt-Out Motion and the opt-out notice appended as Exhibit D to the Opt-Out 22 Motion, Mr. Pavlovsky has provided notice of his intent to opt-out of receiving his Error Coins and 23 he has acknowledged that it is possible that such Subject Victim/Creditor might not receive any 24 other form of distribution out of this bankruptcy estate. The Error Coins allocated to Mr. Pavlovsky 25 were not shipped pending determination of the Opt-Out Motion, so there are no coins to return.
26 Provided that the Court approves the Opt-Out Motion, the Trustee will have authority to dispose of

27 _____
28 ⁵ See Exhibit B to Distribution Motion [Dkt. 667].

1 the Error Coins that had otherwise been allocated to Mr. Pavlovsky as described in the Distribution
2 Motion. In the alternative, the Trustee is agreeable to enter into a stipulation with Mr. Pavlovsky 3 under the terms set forth above.

4 II.

5 CONCLUSION

6 WHEREFORE, under the circumstances, the Trustee does not oppose the Opt-Out Motion.
