B. As evidenced by the affidavits of service previously filed with the Court, the Trustee provided proper, timely, adequate and sufficient notice of the Motion and the hearing on the Motion, in accordance with the United States Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and the Local Rules of the Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Washington. Such notice was good and sufficient, and afforded parties a reasonable opportunity to object or be heard with respect to the matters that are the subject of this Order.

C. NWTM has an immediate need for post-petition financing to continue its ongoing operations in the ordinary course of business, and to avoid disruption of operations. NWTM is unable to obtain unsecured credit or financing and the Court determines that the estate will suffer immediate and irreparable harm without post-petition financing.

D. On an interim basis, Tthe terms of the Credit Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit A are fair and reasonable, reflect the exercise of the Trustee's prudent business judgment consistent with his fiduciary duties, and are supported by fair considerationand.—Tthe Trustee and Prestige Capital Corporation ("Prestige") negotiated the terms of the Credit Agreement at arms-length and in good faith. As such, the Credit Agreement shall be deemed to have been entered into in good faith for the purposes of §364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and Prestige is entitled to the protections therein for the duration of this interim order.

E. The Trustee has demonstrated both (i) good, sufficient, and sound business purpose and justification, and (ii) compelling circumstances for the proposed post-petition financing

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:
