CLEAR OF ALL LIENS, CLAIMS,
INTEREST AND ENCUMBRANCES

20 JOSEPH NEGRI declares as follows under the penalty of perjury under the laws of the 21 United States of America:

22 1. I am Manager of Championship Administration of the United States Golf
23 Association ("USGA"). I am authorized to make this declaration on behalf of USGA in support
24 of its objection to the motion by Chapter 11 Trustee Mark Calvert ("Trustee") to sell, at auction,
25 various property free and clear of liens, claims, interests and encumbrances (the "Sale Motion").
26 Unless otherwise stated, I have knowledge of the facts and circumstances set forth below, and

1 would so testify if called as a witness. Unless otherwise stated, all exhibits to this declaration are 2 copies of documents maintained in the files and records of USGA, and which are maintained as
3 business records of USGA in the regular course of its business.

4 2. USGA is a non-profit organization organized under the laws of Delaware.
5 Founded in 1894, USGA celebrates, serves and advances the game of golf. USGA conducts 6 many of golf's premier championships for both professional and amateur golfers, including the 7 U.S. Open, U.S. Women's Open, U.S. Senior Open and the U.S. Senior Women's Open
8 Championships, as well as 10 amateur championships, two state team championships and 9 international matches, which attract players and fans around the world. Together with The R&A 10 (based in St. Andrews, Scotland), USGA governs the game of golf worldwide, jointly
11 administering the Rules of Golf, Rules of Amateur Status, equipment standards and World
12 Amateur Golf Rankings. USGA, for those governance purposes, has a working jurisdiction in 13 the United States, its territories and Mexico.

14 3. The USGA Handicap System is used in more than 40 countries, and its Course
15 Rating System covers 95 percent of the world's golf courses, enabling all golfers to play on an 16 equitable basis. The USGA campus in Liberty Corner, New Jersey, includes USGA's executive 17 offices, the USGA Research and Test Center, where science and innovation fuel a healthy and 18 sustainable game for the future, and the USGA Golf Museum.

19 4. USGA's name and other terms used by USGA in connection with its business and 20 the championships it conducts are protected as registered U.S. service marks or as common law
21 trademarks. Copies of relevant USGA service mark registration certificates issued by the United 22 States Patent and Trademark Office are submitted as Exhibit 1.

23 5. For decades, the front side of each USGA Championship Qualifying Medal has 24 shown the USGA logo, which I understand to have been used continuously by the USGA since
25 its formation in 1894, and which I understand to be a common law trademark not covered by a
26 federal registration:

The reverse side identifies the championship by the USGA-trademarked event name, e.g., "U.S. Senior Open") and other information relating to the qualifying found.

6. In 2014, I approached NWT on behalf of USGA to discuss its possible engagement to produce the hundreds of sterling silver Championship Qualifying Medals awarded at the approximately 650 Local and Sectional Qualifiers to qualify for USGA's then eleven (now twelve) U.S. annual national championships for professional and amateur golfers.<sup>1</sup> NWT agreed to make a total of sixteen USGA Dies to cover the 1,300 Championship Qualifying Medals required in the aggregate by USGA for its Sectional and Local Qualifiers in advance of the championships.<sup>2</sup> Pursuant to its purchase order issued in February 2015 (attached as Exhibit 2), USGA ordered a total of 16 "black dies" at $300 each, for a total cost to USGA of $4,800.00. (One die will show the USGA logo used on the face side of every USGA Championship Qualifying Medal. The other dies are used for the obverse side of medals, which vary by championship and honor.) USGA paid that amount to NWT, plus a NWT-invoiced charge of $48.36 for "shipping and handling" of the dies (see NWT invoice and USGA check attached as Exhibit 3). With authorization from USGA under separate purchase orders, NWT thereafter

<sup>2</sup> These include medals that are awarded to the approximately 650 players at Qualifiers held around the world, and many of those medalists advance to the USGA Championships (low medalist and low amateur).

1 struck the medals for 2015, using sterling silver and ribbons purchased by USGA under purchase
2 orders issued to NWT. NWT then invoiced, and USGA paid, the costs of production of the
3 Championship Qualifying Medals, and delivered the finished medals to USGA.<sup>3</sup>

4 7. The USGA purchase orders do not contain any license or grant of other rights to 5 NWT with respect to any USGA logo, championship names or other protected words or marks.
6 At no time did NWT assert, or explain, to USGA that the dies used to strike the USGA
7 championship medals were the property of NWT and not USGA.

8 8. The arrangement between USGA and NWT continued in 2016 and 2017 on the 9 same basis, with NWT striking the medals using the USGA Dies and silver and ribbon purchased
10 by USGA, all dealings having been authorized by USGA purchase orders.

11 9. In October 2017, on behalf of USGA, I requested a quote by NWT for the 12 production of Championship Qualifying Medals for a new event to debut during 2018, the U.S.
13 Senior Women's Open. NWT quoted a price of $300 for the face and obverse dies for those 14 medals, which USGA paid in early January 2018 (see NWT confirmation letter and USGA check 15 attached as Exhibit 4).

16 10. In November 2017, USGA also had requested a full run of Championship
17 Qualification Medals for its 2018 championship season. USGA supplemented its purchase
18 orders for those medals with additional terms explained in my email to NWT dated November
19 16, 2017, including a requirement that full delivery be received by January 5, 2018, and the 20 following statement:

21 This Order is an offer by USGA to Supplier that will become a binding contract
22 when this Order is accepted by Supplier. Supplier confirms acceptance by 23 acknowledgement or commencement of work. In no event shall any terms or the essence. Supplier must immediately notify USGA, in writing, of any actual or

26 <sup>3</sup> After attaching ribbons purchased by USGA, NWT packed the finished medals in presentation boxes provided by USGA to NWT through USGA's third party vendor based in Asia.

14 (See my email (emphasis added) and USGA invoices attached as Exhibit 5.)

15 11. NWT was unable to fulfill USGA's delivery requirement, as a result of which, as 16 stated in my email dated February 16, 2018 (attached as Exhibit 6), USGA canceled its order to 17 NWT for all 2018 Championship Qualifying Medals,, contracted with a third party to provide the 18 2018 Championship Qualifying Medals, and requested a refund from NWT for silver previously
19 purchased and paid for by USGA.

20 12. USGA only learned of the Trustee's proposed sale of NWT property, purporting
21 to include coining dies -- possibly including, but not specifically identifying, the USGA Dies --
22 when it received a notice of the proposed sale within the last few days (attached as Exhibit 7).

23 I declare that the foregoing is true and correct.

Medallie Art Company/Northwest Territorial Mint is the largest private mint in America and has the on-site capability to complete every step of the minting process at our 118,000-square-foot, state-of-the-art minting facility in Dayton, Nevada, not far from the famous Comstock silver mining district.

Die Library

We maintain the largest collection of historic and modern medallie dies, so your die will be preserved and available for your use for generations to come.

Coining Presses

With more than 30 coining presses, including high-speed and hydraulic presses with striking forces between 75 and 1,500 tons, we can mint small or large quantities of medallie products ranging from shallow, coin-relief styles to very deep, high-relief art medal designs.

Metal Processing Facility

In-house metal processing facility where fine silver is melted and cast into billets, extruded and rolled into strips to make blanks, then pressed into treasured coins and medals.

In-House Finishing

A variety of available finishes includes dry- and wet-buff antiquing methods, bullion strike, business strike, proof-like, proof, plated, selective gold-plating, and hand-applied epoxy enamel.

Plating

We offer full-service gold-, silver-, and nickel-plating lines along with a precision gold-plating technique we call GoldSelect that enhances specific design elements on your coin or medal with 24-karat gold highlights.

Joe,

OK, I've got the production manager's blessing. If you order today, we'll ship 1,300 medals the first week of January. Silver today is $17.55, so 1,300 comes to $22,815.00

1,300 medals with ribbons comes to $21,775.00.

If you want to lock that in, let me know and I'll get an order confirmation over to you right away.

Also, I've put in a call to my trustee to see if we can match the box price.

K&L Gates LLP
925 Fourth Avenue, Suite 2900
Seattle, Washington 98104-1158Re: Northwest Territorial Mint, LLC – Demand of United States
Golf Association for Refund of Amounts Paid for Unfulfilled
Order for 2018 Championship Qualifying Medals

Dear Mr. Gearin:

As you know, we are attorneys for United States Golf Association (“USGA”). As you also may know, USGA contracted annually with Northwestern Territorial Mint, LLC (“NWT”) since 2015 – both before and during the pendency of NWT’s bankruptcy case – for NWT to strike, package (for presentation purposes) and deliver to USGA the approximately 1,300 sterling silver Championship Qualifying Medals awarded at the approximately 650 Local and Section Qualifiers for the USGA’s annual national championships for professional and amateur golfers. NWT struck the medals for USGA’s eleven national championships in 2015, 2016 and 2017 with sixteen coining dies purchased by USGA from NWT. For additional factual background, I attach copies of the limited objection and supporting declaration and exhibits filed by USGA in opposition to the Trustee’s recent motion regarding a sale of the so-called Medallic Art assets (ECF Nos. 1512 & 1513). See Exhibits A and B.<sup>1</sup>

As explained below, USGA most recently engaged NWT in late 2017 – while the company continued under the management, administration and control of Mark T. Calvert, the Chapter 11 Trustee appointed for the company (“Trustee”) – to purchase the necessary quantity of sterling silver for the medals to be awarded for twelve USGA national championships during the 2018 championship season (the existing eleven championships plus a new championship, the U.S.

Senior Women's Open) (the "2018 Medals"); to purchase two coining dies for the medals for the new event; and to strike, package and deliver the 2018 Medals. The 2018 Medals were to be struck using the existing sixteen coining dies previously purchased by USGA from NWT, and the two dies purchased by USGA for the U.S. Senior Women's Open (collectively with the previously purchased dies, the "USGA Dies").

Even after repeatedly having been held out to USGA (at all times while under the auspices of the Trustee) as being fully ready, able and willing to fulfill an order for the 2018 Medals on the required timetable to meet USGA's needs, NWT failed to perform as represented. NWT defaulted after having: (i) billed USGA and been paid in full by USGA for the required quantity of sterling silver for all 2018 Medals (at a charge of $22,815.00), which was purchased with the parties' specific understanding that NWT would meet a January 2018 delivery date for the first tranche of the 2018 Medals; (ii) billed USGA and been paid in full by USGA for the two dies for the U.S. Senior Women's Open (at a charge of $900.00); (iii) confirmed in November 2017, pursuant to the USGA purchase order, the items, pricing and delivery terms for the full $21,775.00 charge for striking, attaching ribbons, packaging and delivering all of the 2018 Medals; (iv) indicated at all times that NWT could perform within the time constraints required by USGA, i.e., delivery to USGA of the first group of the 2018 Medals by the first week of January 2018, with additional 2018 Medals to be delivered in time to meet the USGA championships; and (v) induced USGA to make an immediate payment to NWT in November 2017 to lock in a spot price for the sterling silver so as to ensure delivery the first week of January 2018. Moreover, even after NWT had invoiced USGA for the coining dies for the U.S. Senior Women's Open, the Trustee caused NWT to shut down all of its operations on December 29, 2017, yet subsequently accepted and retained USGA's payment for those dies in January 2018 – after NWT ceased conducting business. USGA believes that NWT's personnel and the Trustee were or aware when the 2018 Medal order was solicited and/or accepted, or timely became aware well before December 29, 2017, that NWT could not fully perform; yet they lured USGA into placing and leaving its order with NWT and making payments to NWT without advising USGA of the true state of facts known to the Trustee and the company's employees.

The Trustee's recent motion to convert the case to Chapter 7 further confirms that, with the Trustee's knowledge, the NWT business operated unprofitably since Spring 2017, and that the company's losses from operations for the year exceeded $500,000 by November 30, 2017. See ECF No. 1351, at ¶¶ 3-4.

Despite the knowledge that it would not be able to perform, NWT (with the Trustee's knowledge and acquiescence) proceeded to take the USGA order; bill USGA and request immediate payment for the cost of the sterling silver; bill USGA for the purchase of two new dies; acknowledge its acceptance of USGA's purchase order for the medals with the agreed prices and deliver terms; and receive and take USGA's payments into income, under the false pretenses and misrepresentations that the USGA order could be fulfilled. Given what we understand to be the significant administrative insolvency of the NWT bankruptcy estate, and the recent shuttering of

Michael J. Gearin, Esq.

NWT's medal-striking business, we can only assume that the Trustee and NWT did so deliberately, with the goal of adding cash to the bankruptcy estate in order to reflect purported business revenues whose proceeds could then be diverted to other purposes of the Trustee regarding NWT and the case.

USGA has advised us of the following facts and circumstances:

1. In July 2017, even as NWT was operating unprofitably (as was known to the Trustee but was unknown to USGA), Joseph Negri, USGA's Manager of Championship Administration, and the responsible USGA representative in the business dealings with NWT, received an announcement from "Medallic Art Company" captioned "Re-Introducing Medallic Art Company" (Exhibit C). The announcement touted the "new" business and identified its Director of Sales as Marty Colwell – the same person with whom Mr. Negri had communicated concerning prior USGA medal orders placed with NWT. Mr. Negri understood the announcement to signal a restart or upgrading of business operations moving forward to serve existing and new customers, and as an indication that, in soliciting new orders, the business was stable and capable of fulfilling orders well into the future. (We note that the website for "Medallic Art Company" states that "Medallic Art Company is a division of Northwest Territorial Mint." See Exhibit D, at p. 2.)

2. Notwithstanding Mr. Negri's understanding at the time, in the motion papers filed by the Trustee seeking authorization to sell substantially all the Medallic Art assets of NWT (ECF Nos. 1350 & 1351), the Trustee represented that NWT's business had not been profitable since Spring 2017. See ECF No. 1350 at p. 1, Ins. 20-22; p. 2, Ins. 21-23 (Trustee knew in Spring 2017 that it was unlikely that NWT could emerge from bankruptcy as a going concern); p. 3, Ins. 1-4 (Trustee had been attempting to sell the NWT business, and knew in November 2017 that the funds required for the purchaser to close the transaction did not materialize).

3. Knowing as of November 2017 that the NWT business could not operate profitably and would have to be closed imminently, the Trustee and NWT knew that orders that had been placed at that time for delivery dates in 2018 could not be fulfilled. After having sought and accepted the USGA order for 2018 Medals and having continued to represent its ability to fulfill orders, NWT induced USGA to make a payment to purchase the requisite quantity of silver in November 2017 so as to assure delivery during the first week of January 2018. Yet, NWT closed its doors on December 29, 2017.

4. In an email exchange on November 13, 2017, Mr. Negri accepted the spot price quotation of Mr. Colwell, his NWT sale counterpart, for the purchase of the sterling silver required to produce the 2018 Medals. Mr. Colwell specifically stated that "If we order today (November 13th) they [NWT] will ship the medals the first week of January

Michael J. Gearin, Esq.

[2018]”. Mr. Colwell indicated he was also going to communicate with the Trustee to get a price for presentation boxes (in which the medals would be presented to the qualifying golfers). See Exhibit E.

5. On November 16, 2017, NWT issued two sales order acknowledgements to USGA. One addressed USGA’s purchase order for the requisite quantity of sterling silver at that day’s spot price (total cost $22,815.00). See Exhibit F. The second addressed USGA’s purchase order for NWT’s fee to strike the medals, attach neck ribbons, and ship the finished medals to USGA (total charge $22,775.00). See Exhibit G. The latter acknowledgment expressly recited “Event in hand 01/05/2018 (italics added)), and showed a “due date” of January 5, 2018, which further confirmed that USGA would accept partial shipments with “each line [set of medals for a particular championship] to be packaged [and] labeled separately.” The clear intent of USGA, understood by NWT, was that the first sets of medals were needed at the very beginning of 2018, and that those medals would be timely delivered in early January.

6. In reliance on NWT’s acknowledgements and representations, USGA wired $22,815.00 to NWT on November 16, 2017, as payment for the order for 2018 Medals to be fulfilled as placed, and for delivery to commence in the first week of January 2018. See Exhibit H.

7. On December 21, 2017, NWT – having agreed to produce the two coining dies for the new U.S. Senior Women’s Open, issued an invoice to USGA for the $900.00 total cost of the dies ($450.00 each). See Exhibit I. NWT nowhere indicated that its business was near or at the precipice of closure. The issuance of this invoice indicated to USGA that NWT was continuing to operate in the ordinary course, and that it intended to strike and deliver the first of the 2018 Medals during the first week of January 2018 with the balance to follow in time for the later Championship Qualifiers. Yet, from his own submissions to the Court, the Trustee knew by late November 2017 that there was not a current buyer for the company and that he would have to shut NWT’s operations on December 29, 2017.

8. Without having been given any notification from the Trustee or NWT’s business personnel that the business would be unable to fulfill the orders for 2018 Medals, or that NWT had ceased operations on December 29, USGA issued a check to NWT for the two new coining dies on January 12, 2018. NWT, under management and control of the Trustee, accepted and cashed that check despite having shut down NWT’s business operations two weeks before. See Exhibit J.

9. If, in fact the Trustee and NWT had truly intended to deliver the initial tranche of the 2018 Medals by the first week in January 2018, and thereafter to complete the balance of the order, using the silver that presumably was purchased with the proceeds of USGA's November payment, then substantially all of the medals (excluding, perhaps, the U.S. Senior Women's Championship medals if the coining dies did not then exist) should have been struck and packaged, or in process, before NWT closed its doors on December 29.

Michael J. Gearin, Esq.
March 30, 2018

If any of 2018 Medals were in fact, produced, they should immediately be released to USGA. If NWT actually purchased the silver for the 2018 Medals but never struck them, then either purchased silver should be immediately released to USGA, or else the Trustee should immediately remit to USGA the full amount it paid for the silver. Similarly, the Trustee should immediately deliver to USGA the new coining dies for which the Trustee accepted USGA's payment, or remit the funds to USGA.

Accordingly, USGA demands that the Trustee deliver to USGA:

- A. if no 2018 Medals were struck, either: (a)(i) the sum of $22,815.00 (the "(Payment)" for USGA's purchase of the sterling silver for the 2018 Medals, or, alternatively, (ii) a quantity of sterling silver verified as being of the same kind and quality that was specified for the 2018 Medals, plus (b) interest at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum under Washington law from the date of the Payment;
- B. if any 2018 Medals were struck, those medals – for which USGA will pay the agreed price set forth in the sales order acknowledgement dated November 16, 2017 on the condition that those medals fully meet the specifications and quality requirements of the order – plus either: (a)(i) the portion of the Payment representing the unused quantity of the sterling silver that was to have been purchased for the 2018 Medals that were not struck, or, alternatively, (ii) a quantity of sterling silver verified as being of the same kind and quality that was specified for the unstruck 2018 Medals, plus (b) interest at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum under Washington law, from the date of the Trustee's collection of USGA's payment;<sup>2</sup>
- C. $900.00, representing the amount paid by USGA in January 2018 (and accepted by the Trustee after closure of NWT's operations) for the purchase of two new coining dies, plus interest at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum under Washington law from the date of USGA's payment; and
- D. the USGA Dies.

<sup>2</sup> If any 2018 Medals were actually struck and are provided to USGA, USGA reserves the right to set off any amount due NWT against the portion of the Payment applicable to any unstruck medals.

Michael J. Gearin, Esq.

If delivery is not made to USGA within ten (10) business days after the date of this letter, USGA is prepared to bring this complaint to the attention of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Washington and the United States Trustee, and to seek relief in an appropriate proceeding which may include, without limitation, a proceeding on the Trustee's bond. USGA reserves all available rights and remedies of any nature, including claims that may lie against any persons who abetted the Trustee's and NWT's conduct.

Very truly yours
