Case No. 16-11767-CMA

REPLY IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO APPROVE (I) DEADLINE TO ASSERT
CLAIMS WITH RESPECT TO OWNERSHIP
OF NWTM COINING DIES; AND (II)
SETTLEMENT PROTOCOL TO RESOLVE
CLAIMS TO OWNERSHIP OF NWTM DIES

15 I. REPLY

16 Mark Calvert (the "Trustee"), Chapter 11 Trustee for Northwest Territorial Mint, LLC
17 ("NWTM" or the "Debtor"), submits this Reply in support of Motion to Approve (I) Deadline to 18 Assert Claims with Respect to Ownership of NWTM Coining Dies; and (II) Settlement Protocol to 19 Resolve Claims to Ownership of NWTM Dies. The Trustee is in possession of thousands of Coining 20 Dies. It is critical that the Trustee be permitted to implement his settlement protocol, which will 21 efficiently resolve the issue of ownership with respect to all Coining Dies before the estate's interest
22 in the Dayton facility ends in June. After reviewing the objections to the Motion, the Trustee
23 proposes to modify the proposed Notice of Settlement Protocol Regarding Ownership of Northwest 24 Territorial Mint Coining Dies (the "Settlement Notice") to provide for the situation where a former 25 customer affirmatively asserts an ownership interest in a Coining Die but does not agree to the terms

1 of the Trustee’s proposed compromise. Those formers customers may, if they wish, commence an 2 adversary proceeding to obtain a decision regarding ownership of the disputed coining dies. The 3 proposal protocol is a fair means of resolving ownership of the Coining Dies with numerous former 4 customers. Absent approval of the proposed protocol, the Trustee may be forced to simply abandon 5 all of the Coining Dies, a situation in which the fate of dies in which parties may assert an interest
6 would be uncertain, and which could lead to administrative liability for the estate if the Trustee
7 cannot remove dies from the Dayton facility. Simply put, the proposed protocol is an efficient 8 method for addressing claims of ownership to dies, so the remainder of the dies can either be sold or 9 scrapped, which must happen before the end of June. Needless to say, without some sort of method 10 to separate out the dies in which parties claim an interest from the rest, even scrapping the dies is not 11 an alternative.

12 A. The Trustee Proposes to Modify the Settlement Notice and Protocol to Address
13 Unresolved Disputes as to Ownership

14 There were a limited number of objections to the Trustee’s Motion. The United States Golf 15 Association (“USGA”) and the Northern Railway Foundation, Inc. (“NRF”) both objected to the 16 Motion on the basis that it purports to, with respect to unresolved disputes as to ownership of certain 17 Coining Dies, conclusively resolve ownership of such Coining Dies without a judicial determination
18 or commencement of an adversary proceeding. The Trustee proposes to modify the Settlement 19 Notice and protocol to address this particular concern.

20 The Trustee proposes to modify the Settlement Notice to provide that any party who asserts 21 an interest in one or more Coining Dies but does not agree to pay the Settlement Payment set forth in 22 the Settlement Notice, may commence an adversary proceeding to resolve the issue of ownership.
23 Thus, unresolved questions of ownership, will be decided according to a judicial determination so 24 long as the party affirmatively commences an adversary proceeding by date certain in June. If the 25 party receiving notice either fails to commence an adversary proceeding, or fails to settle their 26

1 asserted interest under the terms proposed by the Trustee, they will forfeit any claimed interest in 2 such Coining Dies and the Dies will be deemed property of the estate.

3 Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a redline of the Settlement Notice, which includes the 4 language proposed by the Trustee. The amended settlement notice, if approved by this Court, allows 5 customers to settle on the terms proposed by the Trustee, but also gives customers the ability to 6 resolve the issue of ownership by adversary proceeding so long as they affirmatively file suit before 7 the estate's interest in the Dayton premises ends.

8 B. The Pending Motion to Convert Does Not Form a Basis to Deny the Motion

9 Certain of the objecting parties argue that the Motion should not be granted in light of the 10 fact that the Trustee's pending motion to convert this case to one under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy 11 Code is set for May 4, 2018. The fact that the Trustee has moved this Court to convert this case is 12 not a reason to deny the Motion. Time is of the essence, given that the Trustee will no longer have 13 use of the Dayton Facility after June. The Dayton Facility houses the Coining Dies. If a process is 14 not put in place immediately to efficiently resolve the issue of ownership with respect to the Coining 15 Dies, then the Trustee (even if, as the USGA suggests, it is a different chapter 7 trustee) may be 16 forced to abandon or scrap the Coining Dies before the estate's ability to use the Dayton Facility 17 terminates. The proposed protocol gives a pathway forward to expeditiously resolve the issues with 18 respect to ownership of the Coining Dies. Delaying implementation of a settlement protocol until 19 after entry of an order converting this case serves no useful purpose and leaves the estate with very 20 little time to resolve the issue of ownership of the Coining Dies before the Trustee is forced to vacate 21 the Dayton Facility.

22 C. The Proposed Settlement Payment is Reasonable

23 Certain of the objecting parties take issue with the Trustee's proposed Settlement Payment, in 24 the amount of $300 per Coining Die plus shipping costs. The USGA, for instance, argues that the 25 Settlement Payment is an "arbitrary figure" that "makes no distinction between dies that were 26 recently manufactured and dies that may have been held at NWT for longer periods." The brief filed

1 on behalf of various interested parties, including American Numismatic Association, argues that 2 $300 is not reasonable because Ms. Swinburg would routinely return dies to customers. The various 3 interested parties also argue that Ms. Swinburg can take on the task of returning Coining Dies to 4 customers for the cost of $25 per hour.

5 The objecting parties' arguments are unconvincing. The Declaration of Mark Calvert filed in 6 support of the Motion justifies the $300 Settlement Payment as reasonable in light of the cost of 7 administering the Settlement Protocol, which includes more than just locating and packaging dies.
8 The cost includes an allocation of additional expenses such as the cost of noticing, publication,
9 communications with claimants, etc. As was set forth in the Trustee's declaration, $300/die may not 10 even cover the hard cost to the estate if few dies are claimed through the Settlement Protocol, which 11 is a possibility. Nonetheless, even if the Settlement Protocol costs the estate money, it makes 12 economic sense to propose a uniform Settlement Payment rather than separate settlement terms for 13 Coining Die customers depending on when they placed their orders.

14 The objecting parties fail to acknowledge that the estate asserts an interest in the Coining 15 Dies and that the Settlement Payment is part of the Trustee's proposed compromise to resolve the 16 issue absent litigation. Ultimately, the few parties who have lodged objections to the Motion assert 17 an interest in certain Coining Dies and want possession of them without charge. That certain 18 customers want the Coining Dies at no cost to them (or at a lower cost) is unsurprising. Ultimately, if 19 certain customers believe that the terms of the proposed compromise are not reasonable, they are 20 free to commence an adversary proceeding so that the Court may resolve the issue of ownership, or,
21 if they have a clear claim to ownership, the Trustee would request authority to turn over the dies
22 without further court order. The fact that some of the customers have objected to the Settlement
23 Payment, however, does not make it an unfair means of resolving the issue facing the Trustee.

24 The terms of the Trustee's proposed protocol is a fair and reasonable means of attempting to 25 resolve the issue of ownership. Approval in advance of the protocol will allow the Trustee to settle 26 with individual former customers without the need to file numerous settlement motions. It would be

1 extraordinarily burdensome, expensive, and time consuming for the Trustee to either sue all former 2 customers to resolve the issue of ownership, or reach out to them and attempt to negotiate settlement
3 agreements that would require separate approval from the Court.

4 II. CONCLUSION

5 For the foregoing reasons, the Trustee respectfully requests that the Court grant the Motion, 6 and approve the form of Settlement Notice. A revised form of Order is attached as Exhibit B.

EXHIBIT A

NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT PROTOCOL REGARDING OWNERSHIP OF NORTHWEST TERRITORIAL MINT COINING DIES AND DEADLINE TO ASSERT INTEREST IN COINING DIES

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on April 1, 2016, Northwest Territorial Mint, LLC (“NWTM”) filed a petition for bankruptcy relief under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code under Case No. 16-11767-CMA. On April 11, 2016, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Washington appointed Mark Calvert as the Chapter 11 Trustee (the “Trustee”) over NWTM.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that NWTM operated a custom minting business whereby customers would contract with NWTM to produce coins and medallions bearing specific designs. In order to produce these coins and medallions, NWTM first had to create a custom coining die (an “NWTM Die”) used to press the coin or medallion.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that the Trustee submits that with limited exceptions, NWTM retained ownership of all NWTM Dies created to produce coins, medallions, or other products for customers. The Trustee understands that some NWTM customers may assert ownership of an NWTM Die. It is the intent of the Trustee to attempt to sell the NWTM Dies, subject to court approval, to a mint capable of storing the NWTM Dies and producing goods at the request of the customer.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that the United States Bankruptcy Court has approved a Settlement Protocol to resolve disputes between the Trustee and customers asserting an interest in a NWTM Die. Under the terms of the Settlement Protocol, the Trustee will release any interest held by NWTM’s bankruptcy estate in a NWTM Die in exchange for a payment of $300 per die (the “Settlement Payment”). Settling customers will be responsible for paying the cost of shipping the die to their location, plus any costs of shipping associated plasters or galvanos. Settling customers will need to prove their association with the specific dies in question with a copy of a sales quote, order, invoice, written communication, or other information sufficient to establish the association.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that if you assert ownership of an NWTM Die and wish to settle with the Trustee according to the terms expressed herein, you must, by JUNE __, 2018 (the “Settlement Deadline”) fill out a request for die form at www.dierequest.nwtmint.com. All Settlement Payments must be paid by credit card, which a customer service representative of the estate will collect upon shipment. Upon shipment, the estate will transfer ownership of the die(s) to the purchasing agent.

It is important to note that dies manufactured by the Medallic Art Company (“MACO”) are not part of this settlement protocol. The MACO division of NWTM generally created medallions in excess of 2” in diameter.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT IF YOU WISH TO ASSERT AN OWNERSHIP INTEREST IN A NWTM DIE BUT DO NOT SETTLE YOUR INTEREST IN A NWTM DIE BY THE SETTLEMENT DEADLINE, YOU HAVE UNTIL JUNE __, 2018 TO

COMMENCE AN ADVERSARY PROCEEDING FOR THE DETERMINATION OF OWNERSHIP OF SUCH DIE(S) BY FILING A COMPLAINT AGAINST THE TRUSTEE IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT YOUR FAILURE TO EITHER SETTLE WITH THE TRUSTEE OR COMMENCE AN ADVERSARY PROCEEDING BY THE DEADLINES SET FORTH HEREIN WILL RESULT IN YOU FORFEITING ~~YOU WILL FORFEIT ANY~~ CLAIMED INTEREST IN SUCH DIE(S) AND THE NWTM DIE(S) WILL BE DEEMED PROPERTY OF NWTM'S BANKRUPTCY ESTATE.
