22	On April 1, 2016, the Debtor commenced this case by filing a voluntary petition under business. The Trustee entertained expressions of interest from multiple parties including offers to purchase the assets of the estate on a going concern basis and for substantially all of the assets of the estate, but no concrete offer materialized for such a sale on terms which provided any meaningful return to the estate. Because no concrete offer materialized, and because of the inadequate cash resources available to the Trustee, the Trustee closed the custom minting business on December 29, 2017 and prepared to liquidate the assets of the estate.

7 Since the beginning of the year, the Trustee has engaged in negotiations with multiple buyers for various assets of the estate. The Trustee separately reached agreements with Industrial Assets 8 Corp. ("Industrial Assets"), Medalcraft Mint, Inc. ("Medalcraft"), and American Numismatic 9 Society, for the purchase and sale of certain assets of the Debtor. The Industrial Assets and 10 Medalcraft agreements were approved by the Court and have closed. The sale to Industrial Assets 11 Corp. included substantially all of the Debtor's physical machinery and equipment. Medalcraft 12 purchased the Medallic Art name and website; marketing materials; Medallic archives; customer list; 13 sales history; vendor list; certain company owned dies associated with any customer for which there 14 has been a sale in the last 20 years; tools; and woodworking equipment and other assets. The sale to 15 American Numismatic includes older Medallic dies, medals, plaques, and other objects and archives 16 17 that were created prior to January 1, 1998. The sale to American Numismatic Society was recently approved by this Court. 18

One of the Debtor's facilities is located in Dayton, Nevada. That facility housed the majority of the Debtor's custom minting operations. The Trustee ceased business operations in Dayton at the end of December 2017, and he now has until the end of July to vacate the Dayton premises before Bob and Connie Hoff, the landlord, may commence an unlawful detainer action under state law. The majority of staff in Dayton, Nevada has been laid off and only a skeleton staff of five employees remains.

Edgar Chacon is the plant manager of Dayton and has a wide array of duties, which include but are not limited to managing the shut down of the company, arranging the shipment of dies, preparing items of property for sale, assisting with records retention or destruction, and maintaining the building in accordance with lease obligations. There is no other employee in Dayton that has the capability of performing the duties of Mr. Chacon. The Trustee has reached an agreement with Mr. Chacon to ensure that he will stay employed through the closing and move-out of the Dayton, facility (the "Severance Agreement"). A copy of the Severance Agreement is attached to the declaration of Mark Calvert filed in support of this Motion.

The Severance Agreement with Mr. Chacon provides that the Trustee will pay Mr. Chacon severance in the amount of $14,700 (approximately two months of pay) on July 8, 2018. In exchange, Mr. Chacon promises to continue working for the Trustee until such time that all tasks in Dayton are completed or until the Trustee dismisses his services. Mr. Chacon will not seek, or accept other employment during this time. Under the agreement, Mr. Chacon will continue to be paid his existing normal hourly rate, at no less than 40 hours a week. All overtime, if approved, will be paid as time and a half.

As described in the Declaration of the Trustee filed in support of this Motion, the Trustee believes that there is a risk that Mr. Chacon will leave the company absent approval of the Severance Agreement. If Mr. Chacon were to leave, the Trustee would be forced to hire someone to work on a short-term contract basis. It would be very difficult to find such a person on short notice and such a person will not have the institutional knowledge and experience of Mr. Chacon. Additionally, the Trustee would be forced to travel to Dayton to supervise the efforts of the new hire and oversee the sale and shipment of remaining property located in that facility.

II. ISSUE

Should the Court approve the Severance Agreement between the Trustee and Mr. Edgar Chacon?

1	IV. ARGUMENT
2	Mr. Chacon is an employee of NWTM, and is not a professional. Accordingly, his
3	employment is not governed by 11 U.S.C. § 327, and the Trustee does not believe it necessary to 4	seek approval of the Severance Agreement pursuant to Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code. That 5	said, because the Severance Agreement is arguably outside the ordinary course of business, the 6	Trustee seeks approval of the Severance Agreement under 11 U.S.C. § 503(c)(3). Section 503(c)(3)
7	provides in relevant part that transfers or obligations that are outside the ordinary course of business,
8	must be justified by the facts and circumstances of the case.
9	Here, the Trustee believes, in his sound business judgment that the terms of the Severance
10	Agreement, are in the best interest of the estate and creditors and are amply justified by the facts.
11	Mr. Chacon has worked at the Dayton facility since prior to the bankruptcy case. The Trustee is 12	concerned that absent approval of the Severance Agreement, Mr. Chacon will seek and find
13	employment elsewhere given that his duties will terminate upon closure of the Dayton facility
14	anyway. The Trustee would be unable to hire someone with the skill and institutional knowledge of 15	Mr. Chacon to work for the estate on a short-term basis through the end of July. If Mr. Chacon were 16	to leave the company, Mr. Calvert would be forced to hire a short-term contract employee. The
17	Trustee would also be forced to travel to Dayton frequently himself in order to supervise the efforts
18	of that contract employee to comply with lease terms, arrange for the shipment of dies, and 19	coordinate the sale of the remaining items of property in the Dayton facility. In simple terms, given
20	NWTM's current status, the Severance Agreement is a necessary and is justified by the facts and 21	circumstances of the case.
