AT SEATTLE

9 In re:
10 NORTHWEST TERRITORIAL MINT, LLC,
11
12 Debtor.

Case No. 16-11767-CMA

DECLARATION OF PAUL WAGNER
IN RESPONSE TO ORDER TO SHOW
CAUSE

13 I, Paul Wagner, hereby declare:

14 1. I was formerly the President and Chief Information Officer of Northwest Territorial
15 Mint, LLC ("NWTM" or "Debtor"). I continue to provide consulting services to the Mark Calvert,
16 the chapter 11 Trustee (the "Trustee") on an as needed basis during the liquidation and windup phase
17 of the bankruptcy case. Unless otherwise stated, I make the following statements based on my 18 personal knowledge. I submit this Declaration in response to the Court's Order to Show Cause (the 19 "Show Cause Order") entered on July 6, 2018.

20
21 2. In my capacity as Chief Information Officer, I have familiarity with the Debtor's
22 storage of files and records, including the company's email system used by its employees. After 23 entry of the Show Cause Order, I met with Jennifer Baker, an employee of the Debtor. I had 24 conversations with Ms. Baker about her correspondence with customers related to resolving any

1 disputes over ownership of coining dies, and the directive of the Show Cause Order.

2 3. I determined that all of Ms. Baker's correspondence responsive to the Show Cause
3 Order was done via the Debtor's email system. After our conversations, I used the Debtor's
4 computer system to access Ms. Baker's emails. I learned that Ms. Baker saved emails with
5 customers about the return of coining dies in which they asserted an interest in a folder called "Die
6 Requests." I then pulled all emails in Ms. Baker's "Die Requests" folder, as well as all emails in her
7 inbox, sent folder, and deleted folder.
8

9 4. I sorted the emails I pulled from Ms. Baker's email system, and deleted
10 communications that I determined were not related to die customers, including emails to the Trustee,
11 Trustee's counsel, and communications with Medalcraft Mint, Inc., the purchaser of the Medallic
12 dies. I took the remaining emails and saved them in a .pst file, which I placed in a "dropbox" folder
13 that the Trustee's counsel could access.

15 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my 16 knowledge and belief.

17 EXECUTED this 20th day of July, at Pullman, Washington.
