Chapter 11
Case No. 16-11767
ORDER FOLLOWING ORDER TO SHOW
CAUSE
CLERK'S ACTION REQUIRED

This matter came before the Court sua sponte on its Order to Show Cause at ECF No. 2250. Jeffrey Mark McMeel, an interested party in this case, has made numerous frivolous contacts with the Court through filings, letters, and telephone calls, as described in more detail below. When he did not receive his desired response, his filings increased, and he began making bar complaints against various parties involved in this case. Despite being sanctioned twice for this conduct, Mr. McMeel continues to make inappropriate contact with the Court through

Below is the Order of the Court.

1 letters, filings, and telephone calls. The Court therefore modifies the sanctions against Mr.
2 McMeel and bars him from any further contact with the Court.

3 Though many of the facts below have been previously summarized in the Court's Orders
4 to Show Cause and Sanctions Orders against Mr. McMeel, the Court restates them in this order
5 for ease of reference. Mr. McMeel violated the court's First Sanctions Order at ECF No. 328 by 6 filing at least 67 pleadings, papers, and documents beyond what the First Sanctions Order
7 permitted him to file. Mr. McMeel also filed numerous bar complaints against the judge and 8 various attorneys with the bars of Washington State and Washington, D.C., copies of which he
9 filed in this Court. In some of the filings, Mr. McMeel identified himself as "Judge Pro Tempore
10 Jeffrey M. McMeel." In the Second Sanctions Order, at ECF No. 1295, the Court required Mr.
11 McMeel to pay the remaining balance of sanctions due in the amount of $4,999 by November 27,
12 2017 and sanctioned him an additional $25 per day thereafter if he failed to comply. He has 13 never paid the sanctions which totaled $27,124 as of April 30, 2020. Mr. McMeel still sent 14 another 28 letters and papers to the Court that are nonsensical, make outrageous demands for 15 information, and do not seek to pay the sanctions. See ECF Nos. 1332, 1748, 1910, 1935, 1969,
16 1973, 2005, 2029, 2030, 2054, 2060, 2061, 2062, 2089, 2090, 2102, 2106, 2107, 2155, 2165,
17 2166, 2177, 2178, 2180, 2210, 2213, 2236, and 2243.

18 The Court adopts and incorporates all the other findings in the Order to Show Cause and 19 notes that even after Mr. McMeel was served the Order he has continued with his abusive
20 conduct. The Clerk's Office has docketed five papers from him in the week preceding the hearing
21 that are nonsensical harassment. See ECF Nos. 2253, 2254, 2255, 2256, and 2257. For example,
22 on May 19, 2020, the Court received a letter addressed to the above-signed judge and a court
23 staff member asking the Court to send him their TIN because he says he needs it for his backup
24 withholding agent for "trust business operations." The letter further states that should the Court
25 refuse his request to please direct him to the appropriate court officer who will provide their TIN
26 and be a backup withholding agent for our court trust business. See ECF No. 2254.

27 Mr. McMeel also filed another document entitled "Notice of Contempt, Trespassing, 28 Barratry, Protest; Protested" in which he charges several individuals with contempt of court and

Below is the Order of the Court.

1 contempt of their oath of office, among other things. The named individuals include the U.S.
2 Trustee for this region, several other attorneys from the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the chapter 11
3 trustee in this case, the U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Washington, and the director
4 and deputy director of the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts. See ECF No. 2257.

5 Mr. McMeel's filings require the Clerk's Office to take action every time. And while the 6 language is sometimes polite, the purpose is clearly to harass the judge, the Court's staff, and the 7 Clerk's Office staff.

8 This current Order to Show Cause was mailed to Mr. McMeel on April 17, 2020, via 9 BNC to the address in Olympia that he provided to the Court. See ECF No. 2251. Mr. McMeel
10 received the order, appeared at the hearing, and had the opportunity to present argument in 11 defense of his actions. Mr. McMeel provided no rational explanation for his conduct but instead 12 continued his nonsensical interpretation of the law.

13 The Ninth Circuit has recognized "[t]here is strong precedent establishing the inherent 14 power of federal courts to regulate the activities of abusive litigants by imposing carefully
15 tailored restrictions under the appropriate circumstances." De Long v. Hennessey, 912 F.2d
16 1144, 1147 (9th Cir. 1990). The Court concludes that additional monetary sanctions will not
17 deter Mr. McMeel's conduct, as he has consistently ignored the Court's prior orders sanctioning
18 him. The Court further concludes that the most efficient way to deter Mr. McMeel's conduct is 19 for the Court and the Clerk's Office to neither docket nor respond to anything he submits. The 20 Court will set the monetary sanctions Mr. McMeel currently owes at a sum certain of $25,000 so
21 that Mr. McMeel has no need to contact the Clerk's Office to obtain a payoff for the sanctions.
22 Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

- 23 1. The Court modifies the prior orders imposing sanctions and hereby imposes sanctions 24 against Mr. McMeel for all his conduct in the case in the amount of Twenty-five 25 thousand and no cents U.S. Dollars ($25,000 U.S.D.) (the "Modified Sanctions 26 Amount"); and
- 27 2. That unless and until Mr. McMeel pays the full Modified Sanctions Amount in U.S.
28 dollars, this Court and the Clerk of Court shall and will do the following:

Below is the Order of the Court.

- a. disregard and dispose of, without notice to Mr. McMeel, all letters, emails, and any other form of written communication from Mr. McMeel or anyone on his behalf, and
 - b. block and refuse to answer all phone calls from Mr. McMeel or anyone on his behalf; and
 - c. disregard and delete all voice mail messages from Mr. McMeel or anyone on his behalf; and
3. The Clerk of the Court is authorized and directed to dispose of, without notice to Mr. McMeel, any coins or any partial payments received from Mr. McMeel or anyone on his behalf; and
 4. The Clerk of the Court shall serve a copy of this order on Mr. McMeel via BNC.
